Summer preparatory tasks:

Task One:

Write 250-350 words in French answering the following question:

Why have you chosen to study A Level Spanish?

You could consider the following points in your answer: What appeals to you about the study of languages? In what ways is Spanish relevant to your daily life/your hopes/your ambitions? In which fields, such as the arts, science, business or manufacturing would it help? Does it open new career paths? This should take about 1 hour.

Task Two:

At A level you will be much more independent in your learning. Apart from our assessments, you need to be aware of your own progress, test yourself, identify gaps, and decide how and how often to revise.

Use www.languagesonline.org.uk to revise the following:

- Present tense – regular, irregular and reflexive verbs
- Preterite tense – regular, irregular and reflexive verbs
- Adjectives and adjective agreement – masculine, feminine, and plural forms

We expect you to be familiar with these and will check your understanding at the start of the A level course.
