Re: UCAS Application deadline – 16th October

Dear parent(s) and carer(s)

If your son/daughter is looking to apply to:

- The University of Oxford
- The University of Cambridge

Or, undergraduate courses to read:

- Medicine
- Dentistry
- Veterinary Science

then, please note that their UCAS deadline is 2 weeks' away – Wednesday 16th October

If this applies to your son/daughter then it is critical that they are pro-active working with their Form Tutor to check their UCAS form/go through their reference. Oxbridge applicants should then be working with Miss C. Smith and the remaining students with myself, well in advance of 16th October. Clearly the school will be unable to process any applications if they are left to the last minute.

For students applying to Oxford/Cambridge:

- All students have been benefitting from 1-2-1 sessions with Miss C. Smith
- They have, today, been sent details of a wide range of sessions delivered by Admissions Teams from Oxford and Cambridge University pertaining to interview preparation; all students have been asked to 'sign up' to these sessions.
- On 19th November, one of our link Colleges, Wadham: Oxford University will be sending Dr Munro who oversees admissions, to speak to the students for one-hour regarding interview preparation
- All students will also be offered a mock interview in late November; unfortunately, this will almost inevitably be around the time of the mock examinations

For students applying for courses in Medicine, Dentistry and Veterinary Science:

- All students have received personalised feedback from external consultant, Miss Popperwell
- All students will be sending off their UCAS forms with myself, and I will also oversee the whole application
- We are in the process of arranging an MMI day for all these students – this will take place on Thursday 14th November and will involve a wide variety of mock interview/assessment tasks

Please note that the overwhelming majority of students will look to send off their UCAS form later in October, or in November – and this 16th October deadline DOES NOT apply to them.

We aim to send all other applications off by mid-November, before the mocks start where possible.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Yours sincerely
